

THE ROANOKE TIMES.

(AILY AND WEEKLY)
An Independent Democratic paper devoted to the material and political interests of Roanoke and Southwest Virginia.

DO YOU ADVERTISE?
"To discontinue an advertisement," says John W. Wainwright, "is like taking down your sign. If you want to do business you must let the public know it. I would as soon think of doing business without clerks as without advertising."

WE RETURN TO OUR MUTTON.
As was announced yesterday in the news columns of the TIMES, the census for Roanoke has been completed and the enumerators are now busy counting up the result.

Whatever these results may be, they will not be complete. We have more than once called the attention of our readers to the fact that the enumeration was not being done as thoroughly as it should be, that many citizens had not been counted. We stated that there were men employed on the TIMES who had never been enumerated, but this brought no response.

The enumerators state that the count will be a surprise to the people of Roanoke, that the census will not show as many people as the majority of them have fondly thought. It is no wonder that it won't, the only wonder will be that we will make a respectable showing at all.

Any number of complaints are heard on all sides from public spirited citizens who state that they have not been counted. Why even MAYOR EVANS has been left out, and half a dozen people employed about his business place. Such cases as these should be looked into, and the citizens of this town should see to it that a remedy is applied.

Roanoke has worked hard for her position among American cities, and should not be robbed of her just dues.

NEW BROOMS SWEEP.
Two or three days ago THE TIMES called the attention of the proper authorities to the condition of the streets immediately contiguous to the market.

We are glad to announce this morning that the matter has been promptly attended to, and yesterday a force of hands was put to work removing the unhealthy and ill-smelling garbage. It is wonderful what a different appearance the street presented after a few hours work.

The matter should not be allowed to stop here. There is an old adage that to the effect that new brooms sweep clean. We have now a brand new street committee and health board. They can do nothing that will make them so popular with their fellow-roanokers as seeing that the streets are properly attended to.

A DAY OF REST.
We hope and believe that the merchants and other employers of Roanoke will give their employees a holiday tomorrow.

It will do them lots of good and they will return to their duties in store, office and workshop with renewed vigor. A holiday is a good thing. We should have more of them, and tomorrow every one should do their utmost to make the celebration a success.

THE WINKNESS OF A WINK.

The New York Sun is known all over the country, not only for the freshness and originality of its editorial utterances but for the views of its correspondents. POSSEY S. WILSON is one of the most unique. He has about him the picturesqueness of the wild and woolly West and he knows how to put it on paper. In the last issue there is a gem well worth reprinting. "In August," writes POSSEY, "I wrote to the Sun, demonstrating, as I think, the fitness of Colonel Buffalo Bill and Professor John L. Sullivan as candidates for all parties' support, and predicting the increasing splendor of their names."

"Time has verified the wisdom of my selection, for the great parties were beaten. Grover was beaten, the polls and Benjamin lies prone in the White House, with none so poor as to do him reverence."

"Once again let me offer two illustrations for 1890 names on which men of all parties can unite, to wit: James G. Blaine, of Kentucky, and Senator Joe S. Blackburn, of Maine, the watchword to be, 'Jim winked at Joe; Joe winked at Jim.'"

What better evidence that the bloody shirt is buried forever; that stronger assurance that

Love and poise of ale
In peace shall keep us warm.

than the pregnant and inspiring words, 'Jim winked at Joe; Joe winked at Jim'?"

The reason RADAM'S MICROBE KILLER is the most wonderful medicine is because it has no equal in any instance, no matter what the disease, from Leprosy to the simplest disease known to the human system.

The scientific men of today claim and prove that every disease is exterminates the microbes and drives them out of the system, and what that is done you cannot have an ache or pain. No matter what the disease, whether a simple case of malaria fever or a combination of diseases, we cure them all at the same time, as we treat all diseases constitutionally.
